About ALUMINIUM CHINA

ALUMINIUM CHINA is Asia's premier tradeshow and B2B platform for the aluminium industry, focusing on branding, sourcing, networking, and technical exchange. Leveraging 20 years of industry expertise, we connect key players with cutting-edge products, innovative technologies, and advanced processes across the entire aluminium value chain. This includes raw materials, aluminium alloys, processing materials, aluminium components, finished products, related machinery, and consumables.

We are dedicated to advancing the sustainable development of the global aluminium industry and expanding business opportunities for international professionals. Our annual offline trade show is the Asian hub for global aluminium industry gatherings, serving as a platform through which we empower and engage with the sector via a variety of activities, including insightful conferences and forums, business matchmaking meetings, online seminars, and international exchange roadshows throughout the year.

Connect with over 650+ exhibitors representing the full spectrum of the industry in one location

Discover a diverse array of aluminium materials, machinery, and the latest technological innovations

On-site Activities - Business Matchmaking

The on-site international business matchmaking event is designed to streamline the process of sourcing suppliers and enhance connections between buyers and suppliers.

Before the event, the organizer will collect purchasing requests from buyers and carefully pre-select suppliers who meet the buyers' interests and specifications. This pre-selection process allows for targeted scheduling of on-site meetings, thereby accelerating business communications and maximizing the productivity of your event participation.

On-site Activities - Factory Tour

The factory tour is a value-added opportunity tailored for international attendees to visit leading Chinese aluminium extrusion, rolling, and equipment factories. This tour allows participants to gather the latest information on Chinese suppliers, observe their production facilities, and establish relationships with potential business partners.

Designed to enhance networking and facilitate technical exchanges, the factory tour supports international business cooperation within the aluminium industry.
