Aluminium China

About ALUMINIUM CHINA

ALUMINIUM CHINA is Asia's premier tradeshow and B2B platform for the aluminium industry, focusing on branding, sourcing, networking, and technical exchange. Leveraging 21 years of industry expertise, we connect key players with cutting-edge products, innovative technologies, and advanced processes across the entire non-ferrous metals value chain. This includes raw materials, alloys, semi-finished products, components, finished products, machinery and consumables across the aluminium, copper and magnesium industries, as well as lightweighting and metal recycling technologies.

We are dedicated to advancing the sustainable development of the global aluminium industry and expanding business opportunities for international professionals. Our annual offline trade show is the Asian hub for global aluminium industry gatherings, serving as a platform through which we empower and engage with the sector via a variety of activities, including insightful conferences and forums, business matchmaking meetings, online seminars, and international exchange roadshows throughout the year.

Why Visit?

- Connect with over 680+ exhibitors representing the full spectrum of the industry in one location
- Discover the full non-ferrous metals value chain, from raw materials and processing technologies to finished products and advanced machinery
- Gain valuable industry insights & explore emerging trends through high-quality conferences & featured displays
- Benefit from personalized business matchmaking services, factory tour and value-added activities

Exhibit Range

Aluminium Materials >

- Raw aluminium
- Recycled aluminium
- Semi-finished products, such as aluminium profiles, sheets, strips, foils, casting and forging
- Aluminium alloys
- Primary aluminium products
- Deep processed products, covering automotive, energy storage, construction, transportation, machinery, packaging, electronics, photovoltaic industries etc.

* Partial Exhibitors

Equipment & Auxiliaries >

- Raw aluminium processing equipment
- Extrusion & rolling equipment
- Heat processing equipment
- Deep processing equipment
- Environmental protection & energy efficient equipment
- Surface processing equipment
- Recycled aluminium processing equipment
- Test & measurement equipment
- Industrial robots and smart manufacturing equipment
- Refractory materials, foundry chemicals, master alloys, additives etc.
- Other auxiliary materials & equipment

* Partial Exhibitors

Visitor Profile

- Raw aluminium, recycled aluminium, and aluminium processing factories
- Aluminium traders, distributors and agents
- Transportation industry players, such as auto parts makers, auto makers, rail transportation players, aerospace industry manufacturers
- Packaging industry, such as aluminium-plastic packaging, aluminium foil packaging, bottles, cans packaging, end-user packaged goods companies etc.
- Machinery makers, such as metal processing equipment and auxiliary materials suppliers
- Aluminium equipment makers
- Consumer electronics and white goods
- Construction industry, such as windows, doors & curtain walls, home decor, real estate developers & construction contractors, model makers
- New energy industry (automotive, energy storage, wind, solar, light etc.)
- Other aluminium users

On-site Activities - Business Matchmaking

The on-site international business matchmaking event is designed to streamline the process of sourcing suppliers and enhance connections between buyers and suppliers.

Before the event, the organizer will collect purchasing requests from buyers and carefully pre-select suppliers who meet the buyers' interests and specifications. This pre-selection process allows for targeted scheduling of on-site meetings, thereby accelerating business communications and maximizing the productivity of your event participation.

On-site Activities - Factory Tour

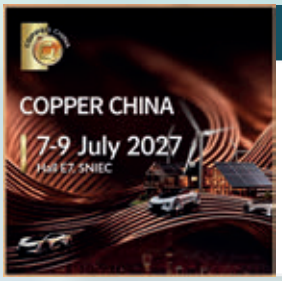

The factory tour is a value-added opportunity tailored for international attendees to visit leading Chinese aluminium extrusion, rolling, and equipment factories. This tour allows participants to gather the latest information on Chinese suppliers, observe their production facilities, and establish relationships with potential business partners.

Designed to enhance networking and facilitate technical exchanges, the factory tour supports international business cooperation within the aluminium industry.

International Supporting Associations

Integrated Five-Show Non-Ferrous Metals Platform

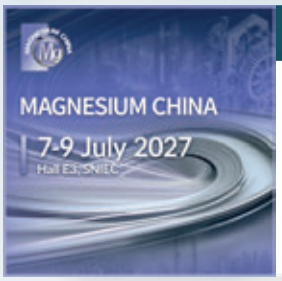

COPPER CHINA >

COPPER CHINA brings together new materials, products, technologies and applications from across the copper processing industry. Covering copper-based materials, fabricated products, processing equipment and supporting solutions, the show combines product showcases with industry forums and business exchange.

LIGHTWEIGHT ASIA >

Lightweight Asia is a dedicated trade fair for automotive lightweighting, bringing together advanced materials, processing technologies, structural design and integrated solutions from China and overseas.

MAGNESIUM CHINA >

As the magnesium industry advances towards greener, lower-carbon, lighter and smarter development, magnesium alloys are gaining momentum across automotive, new energy vehicles, two-wheelers, consumer electronics and aerospace applications.

SHANGHAI INTERNATIONAL METAL RECYCLING EXPO >

The Shanghai International Metal Recycling Expo responds to the global shift towards circularity and low-carbon development across the non-ferrous metals industry. The show covers dismantling, recycled feedstock, scrap recovery and processing, recycling technologies, equipment and downstream applications.
